

RULES OF THE RANCH

For the SAFETY and enjoyment of the horses here at the Ranch, please be aware of the following rules:

Visitors must stay within the white fenced area for safety. This rule applies to parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, siblings, and friends, even if they have knowledge of horses. HORSES BITE!!! Do not touch or feed the horses unless told to do so by an Instructor.

Do not run, scream, yell or throw objects within the Ranch grounds.

Children under 6 years of age must be accompanied by Ranch personnel outside the white fencing.

Please leave all pets at home.

Please discard all trash in the can provided within the white fenced area.

Thank-you! Your cooperation keeps everyone safe and the Ranch running smoothly. If you have any questions or concerns, please see Jim or Carol.
